

Privacy Statement

At Denovo Biopharma LLC (“Denovo”), we know you care about your personal privacy and about the terms and conditions that govern how we collect, use, disclose, transfer, and store your information. Because we are dedicated to serving your needs and respecting your preferences, we have adopted the policies and practices described in this Denovo Privacy Statement.

Where We Store and Process Personal Data

The personal data collected may be processed in your country of residence or transferred to another country where Denovo, its affiliates, subcontractors or other recipients of personal data are located

This means that your personal data may be processed or stored in a country that has less stringent data protection standards than those of the European Union. We will ensure that your personal data will be treated in accordance with this Privacy Statement at all times even if it is being transferred outside the EEA. The personal data transferred outside the EEA is protected by the adequacy decision made by the EU Commission or by appropriate contractual arrangements (either by the signing of the Standard Contractual Clauses by the controller and the recipient(s) or by the recipient’s self-certification under the EU – US Privacy Shield). For more information, please contact Denovo.

Notification of Changes

Denovo Biosciences may alter this statement at any time by posting a new one at this location. This privacy statement was last updated on 09/17/20.
